Cancer Support Community and Bryan's House Come Together for "Noggie Fest"

Martin Woodall and Adam Carriker along with Kelly Counts and Keely Walgama of CSC with the kids at Noggie Fest

Friday, June 10th marked the beginning of the Cancer Support Community's summer, youth programming. The CSC celebrated this "Noggie Fest" with an afternoon of fun and activities for all the Noggieland members and their families. The CSC also generously invited a group of kids from Bryan's House to join in the fun. As the summer progresses, monthly events including "Hero and Princess for a Day" and the "Woodall Foundation Hoop Camp" will follow. These activity days allow parents to run errands and attend doctors' appointments without having to worry about their child's supervision.

Volunteers organized carnival games for the kids at Noggie Fest.
